EDITOR NOTES

LIVING LISTS MAGAZINE

WELCOME TO LIVING LISTS

a passionate lover of food, drinks, art, and of life, Chloe was notorious for her personal taste and recommendations. The phrases “so so good” and “I’m obsessed” featured heavily in her vocabulary. While I can’t list these with the level of personal specificity Chloe did to those she knew and loved, I have been able to curate a selection of her many recommendations into this magazine in her honour. From iPhone notes, instagram posts (@shelivestoeat), spotify playlists and personal recommendations kindly shared from friends and family, here is a collection of just a few of Chloe’s “living lists”.

so perhaps, when you are next looking for a spot to eat in Manchester, a bar in NYC, a show to watch, or even a name for your new dog, think of Chloe and consider one of her suggestions. All best enjoyed in the company of the people you love, laughing with friends. And while you’re there, raise a spicy margarita to Chloe (or a beer, a dirty martini, a glass of Krug, a dry daiquiri, a sip of chartreuse, the list goes on...), and remember to tip your server.

and if you have more to add, please add them to xxxxurl finally, if you are able, please consider making a donation to macmillan, the christie, or the moya cole hospice. The hard work, dedication and incredible support of the people that work there supported Chloe throughout her illness, and the research they are doing will save lives. Thank you.
